Penn State Extension will offer the workshop "Cooking for Crowds: A Volunteer's Guide to Safe Food Handling" on Wednesday, Sept. 7, at 6 p.m. at St. Peter's Lutheran Church, 10 Delp Road, Lancaster.

Participants will learn about foodborne illness, what causes it, how to prevent it; safe purchasing, preparation, storage and service for a crowd; cleaning and sanitizing; planning a menu with food safety in mind, and general guidelines for events specific to the needs of nonprofit audiences. Food safety educator Stacy Reed will lead the workshop. For more information, readers may call Reed 394-6851 or email sls374@psu.edu.

There is a cost to attend the workshop. Separate fees have been set for individuals and for groups of up to four people. Each organization will receive a copy of "Cooking for Crowds: A Volunteer's Guide to Safe Food Handling" manual. Additional manuals may be purchased.
